In this subject students will develop their professional identity through engagement in an international work environment. Using their lived experience, they will reflect on the application of the skills and knowledge developed in the earlier stages of the degree to a global context in order to develop new ways of thinking and complex problem solving skills. Engagement in international work placement will enable students to broaden their perspective through emersion in a culturally diverse environment and foster self-reliance, resilience and cultural awareness.

Examine the implications of cultural difference in management structures, staffing and guest expectations to the hospitality experience

Synthesise theoretical knowledge, experiential learning and professional practice in international environments

Collaborate with international communities of practice to promote innovation, knowledge sharing and development

Demonstrate professional responsibilities such as initiative, adaption to work place culture and time management

Reflect on professional identity, ethics and the performance of self and others in a global context

Graduate Attributes addressed in this subject

Preparedness

Systematic and coherent body of knowledge

Cognitive skills to synthesise and consolidate knowledge

Scholarly skills

Personal attributes - ability to adapt to diverse environments, resilience